A Moving Speech and Demolition Day

Classic Homes of Maryland rallies volunteers and the real work begins

Rockville, Md. – June 23, 2008 – Classic Homes of Maryland delivered the moving “Braveheart” speech to a sea of volunteers dressed in blue. Hundreds of volunteers and supporters gathered at the Poolesville location by 11:30 am, led by Prem Puri, President and Founder of Classic Homes of Maryland. Together, following the motivating speech, the sea of blue marched on the old home and demolition day began in what is the hit show’s famous “Braveheart” march.

Following the invigorating march, ABC’s Extreme Makeover: Home Edition design team leader, Ty Pennington gave the nod and the demolition began, with blasts and debris taking over. Classic Homes of Maryland and EMHE, along with their contractors and volunteers, now have less than a week to build a dream home for the Jackson Family. The move in day is set for June 28th, with the reveal day being June 29th. There’s a lot of work to do in the meantime.

Vice-President and Co-Founder of Classic Homes of Maryland, Amita Jain, says, “There’s a lot to do, but with the wonderful team we have and the support of our great volunteers, there’s no doubt the work will get done and get done right. I am eagerly looking forward to Reveal Day!”

What’s on the agenda for the first 24 hours of construction? The goals consist of leveling the lot and setting a firm foundation, along with building the frame.
